Dear Sir/Madam,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town & Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

Application No: EP/49/26/HH
Site Address: Tuts Cottage Manor Close East Preston BN16 1JF
Description of works: Single storey extension and alterations to existing property. Including porch extension, construction of new chimney, alterations to fenestration and replacement roof tiles. This application may affect the setting of a Listed building

Thank you for your internet representation made on 23rd June 2026 which has been recorded as no objection with the comments as follows:

OWQC84288

The Planning & Licensing Committee of this council considered this application at its meeting on Monday, 22nd June.

Tuts Cottage is partly made up of farm buildings, some of which date back to before 1879. For this reason, the council asks for suitable Conditions to be applied to any planning permission granted. The Conservation Officer will have a better idea of suitable Conditions.

The council appreciated the efforts made by the applicant regarding the historic nature of the building and agreed not to raise any objections to this proposal.

Please could the Conservation Officer be asked to comment upon this application if he has not already been asked. Thank you.

Simon Cross - Clerk to the Council

Your views as made above will be considered before the application is determined.

Please be aware that Planning Services operate an 'open file' policy and will publish your comments on the website. The website is updated once a day in the evening so it may take up to 24 hours for it appear on there. Please make sure that you have only provided information that you are happy will be published in this way. If you have supplied information belonging to a third party, you must make sure you have their permission to do so.

The majority of applications are determined under delegated powers by officers. Further information on the decision making process can be found on the website at :<https://www.arun.gov.uk/what-happens-next>.

Some applications will be determined by the Planning Committee, and I shall write and inform you of the date of the meeting and the procedures for public speaking if this is the case. However, if your representation has been received after the agenda for the meeting has been finalised and the notifications have been generated, you will not receive notification. In this case, you will need to track the progress of the application on the council's website <https://www.arun.gov.uk/planning-application-search>

Any comments that are received after the agenda has been finalised will be separately reported to the members of the Planning Committee.

Regardless of how the application is determined I will notify you of the decision.

In the event of a subsequent written representations appeal, against a refusal of planning permission on a householder application any representations made on the application will be automatically forwarded to the Secretary of State. Unlike all other types of appeal, there will be no further opportunity to comment at the appeal stage.

Yours sincerely

Neil Crowther
Group Head of Planning
