Hi Zoe

Just to confirm there are currently no existing dormers. The property is exactly as you see below. We are looking to put dormers up on the East side of the property. Both properties on the East side looking into our property have double dormers already built so our project will be mirrored to the surrounding properties.

Please give me a call to discuss further.

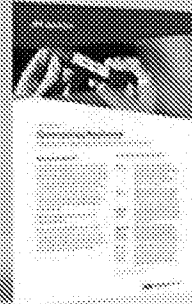

Many thanks

Lee

Dear Karen,

I hope you are well.

You will be aware that the above application is due for decision on 03/08/21.

Pleas can you confirm where the existing dormers are on this proposal at New Lodge.

It would be much appreciated if you can send me photos of all elevations, especially the existing dormers asap.

Many thanks
