Dear Mrs Honney-Bayes

Further to the letter attached to the email below, please find attached the following revised drawings:

With regard to the second item on our letter - the missing window - I confirm our telephone conversation, in that the window you refer to on the south elevation is clerestory glazing to the ground floor as there is no first floor in this area.

We trust that this provides the information you require and look forward to receiving confirmation of validation as soon as possible.

Regards
