6. How we calculated this figure

We calculated this figure from the following information:

Dev. Type CIL Rate £	Floorspace m2	Residential Extension Exemption	TPI Used	Calculated Date	CIL Amount
Zone 4 Res <= 10 CIL Rate 100.00	Gross: 114 Demolished: Retained: Increase: 114	£11,365.87	333	16-07-2021	£.00

7. You have been granted Residential Extension Exemption from CIL.

Therefore you will not be issued with a Demand Notice to pay CIL.

The exemption granted in this notice is subject to a disqualifying event not occurring within three years of completion* of development. For further information, please see the Ministry for Housing, Communities and Local Government's guidance: <https://www.gov.uk/guidance/community-infrastructure-levy#relief-and-exemptions>

*Completion for the purposes of CIL exemption is defined as the issuing of a compliance certificate for this development issued under either regulation 17 (completion certificates) of the Building Regulations 2010 or section 51 of the Building Act 1984 (final certificates)

If the exemption and relief procedures are followed you may ignore Part 8 of this Notice.

8. When will this CIL amount be due for payment?

Do not send payment until we send you a Demand Notice, this will detail how much and when to pay.

If the payment procedure is followed correctly, this CIL amount will be payable in accordance with the Council's instalment policy:

Amount	Number of instalments	Payments periods and amounts
Any amount less than £10,000	One payment	Total amount payable within 60 days of commencement of development
Amount equal to £10,000 or less	Three equal instalments	60 days, 120 days and 180 days

than £50,000		or commencement of development

Note: Commencement is defined in Regulation 67 of the CIL Regulations 2010 (as amended) as relating to the date given on the commencement notice submitted to the charging authority

Note that this instalment policy may alter but we will contact you if this occurs.

Some, or the entire amount, may also be paid by transferring land to the CIL charging authority or another beneficiary agreed with the charging authority. See the CIL guidance on Payment in kind for more information.

The following notifications must be served on the collecting authority before development commences:

- * Who will pay the amount, by assuming liability using CIL Form 2 'Assumption of Liability';
- * The date on which you intend to commence development, by submitting a valid commencement notice. Download Form 6' Commencement Notice.

Precise details of your payment arrangements and options will be contained in the demand notice that will be sent following submission of a valid commencement notice.

If this procedure is not followed, payment of the CIL amount will be due in full on the day that development commences.

If a valid commencement notice has not been submitted before development commences, even if an exemption for self build has been agreed, you may be liable for a surcharge.

Consequences of non payment

If you fail to follow the payment procedure described above, the collecting authority may impose surcharges on this liability. Persistent failure to pay CIL liabilities due may result in the collecting authority imposing surcharges, serving a CIL stop notice prohibiting further development on the site and/or taking action to recover the debt due. Please see the guidance published by the Department for Communities and Local Government for more information.

9. The amount of CIL liability in this notice is a local land charge

Self-Build or Residential Annexe Exemption will be cancelled three years after completion of development. But if a disqualifying event has occurred the Land Charge will only be removed on full payment of the amount due.

10. New liability notices may be issued

Any change in the details contained in this notice (including calculation of the chargeable amount or amount of relief granted) will lead to the collecting authority issuing a new liability notice.
