

This planning application is because all three trees are of excessive height.
It has no arboricultural implications.