Mr Easmon-Dura,

As the parish have objected we are minded to take the application to the next available committee which is Wednesday 14th November 2018.

Would you be aggregable to an Extension of Time until 16th November 2018 to allow us to demonstrate the requirement for the condition has been mitigated to the committee for our conclusions to be drawn on this application.

I look forward to your response.

Dear Corbey,

From the Council's website, you are now the new Planning Officer dealing with these last minor matters to a planning approved scheme with respect to the few conditions to be discharged.

I put in a telephone call today to just generally discuss progress, but I was informed you are on leave.

I wrote to the previous Planning Officer (Mrs Anita Gardner) who was dealing with the case last week. The two letters are attached again for acknowledgement.

I would be very grateful if you could give priority to this case as it has been in the planning process for well over two years.

We felt that we were getting on well with Mrs Gardner albeit understandably slow.

A telephone call would be fully appreciated (Mo. 07956 166482) or (020 8668 0239)

Regards,
