Good Morning Mr. Denton

I hope you are well.

Thank you for your email, I appreciate the update from yourself and the fact that the decision requires you to consult with a number of your colleagues.

I spoke to my client yesterday who agreed to the Extension of Time you proposed in your previous email.

If I can be of any help or provide any further detail please do contact me.

Kindest Regards

Jack Harley

Dear Mr Harley,

Thank you for your email.

Personally, I am supportive of the scheme, however, please note that this view may not be shared by the entire department, and is subject to change. Ultimately, a decision is made departmentally.

Please do not hesitate to contact me with any further queries you may have.

Kind regards,

Zac

Dear Mr. Denton

Happy new year and I hope that you are well.

Are you able to advise me on your position on this application before I ask my client to agree to an extension of time?

I understand that your Team Leader and Head of Planning may have a different opinion, but I would like to be able to provide my client with an update first.

Any queries please do contact me.

Kind Regards

Jack Harley

Dear Mr Harley,

Apologies for the lateness of my email.

Due to the scale of the application, it will be taken to a meeting with my Team Leader, and the Head of Planning in order to make a decision as to the fate of the application. Would you be agreeable to an Extension of Time until the 17th of January in order for a determination to be made?

Kind regards,

Z Denton
