Ferring is a peaceful quiet village, no street lamp, no pavements.

The roads are very narrow and any increase in volumes of traffic would be a great detriment to the peace and harmony to the people who live in the area. The cafe already attracts a great volume of people and dog walkers to the area and the car park is full to bursting especially at the weekend. The surface of the car park is an absolute disgrace. I would like to add my voice strongly to object to this planning application.
