Dear Madam,

I write with reference to our telephone conversation on this morning to confirm my agreement on the applicant's behalf to extend the time for your consideration of this application until Friday 19 January 2018.

As I mentioned to you, before submitting the application some considerable time was spent in discussions with your team leader to ensure that the application, when submitted, was acceptable and overcame your Council's concerns. In the event that when you do get the opportunity to have a look at this application and you do have any additional concerns then I would be grateful if you would make contact with me before formal determination so that there is an opportunity, if necessary, to address any further issues.

Yours faithfully,

Philip Willmer BSc Dip Arch RIBA
Chartered Architect

Dear Mr Willmer,

Further to our telephone conversation earlier today I would appreciate your agreement to an extension of time on the above application until 19-01-2018. Please can you confirm your agreement by return?

Thanks
Anita
