Ms Farrell: I have seen your advice to Arun on this planning application on a site in Ferringham Lane, Ferring. You say that since this is a private street, there is no enforceable speed limit. Several of your colleagues have made similar statements about the private streets in Ferring in relation to other planning applications but please note that a Traffic Regulation Order was made two or three years ago, imposing a 30 mph limit. Could you please ensure that future advice takes account of this fact? – Ed Miller (Secretary, Ferring Conservation Group)
