

Hi

Pls can you add the below comments to the case file online and label as 'Archaeology Officer comments'

Thanks
Amy

Dear Amy,

Very well, thanks. Could do with a change, of course! You OK?

The proposed changes to the window would seem to have no impact on anything of archaeological interest. In the circumstances there would seem to be no archaeological reason to recommend either refusal or the application of any other mitigation measures.

Best wishes,

James

Dear James,

Hope you're doing OK?

I have this planning application due next week for a new window to a Grade I listed church, which is also in an Archaeological Notification Area.

Our Conservation Officer has been consulted and I'm just awaiting comments from them.
I note that Historic England have confirmed they have no comments to make.

I've not yet received comments back from Council for British Archaeology/Society for Protection Ancient Buildings. Do you think I need to secure comments from those 2 bodies re archaeology?

I'm sorry but I'm not sure if there was an error with the system so I'm not sure if you were consulted.

If at all possible would you be able to provide me with comments please ideally by tomorrow (12th May) but if not by Weds (13th May)? (as I hope to write up the application then)

Many thanks in advance,

Amy
