AND

Jack Horton & Stephanie Nelson
(the "Tenant")

OF THE SECOND PART

IN CONSIDERATION OF the Landlord leasing certain premises to the Tenant and other valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which consideration is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

BACKGROUND:

1. This is an agreement to create an Assured Shorthold Tenancy as defined in Section 19A of the Housing Act 1988 or any successor legislation as supplemented or amended from time to time and any other applicable and relevant laws and regulations.
2. The Landlord is the owner of residential property available for rent and is legally entitled to grant this tenancy.

LET PROPERTY

1. The Landlord agrees to let to the Tenant, and the Tenant agrees to take a tenancy of the house, known as and forming Bungalow "Ladydeir" Hangleton Lane, Ferring, W.Sx BN12 6PP (the "Property"), for use as residential premises only.
2. No pets or animals are allowed to be kept in or about the Property.
3. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the Tenant is entitled to the use of parking on or about the Property.
4. The Tenant and members of Tenant's household will not smoke anywhere on the Property nor permit any guests or visitors to smoke on the Property.

TERM

5. The term of the tenancy is a periodic tenancy commencing at 12:00 noon on 1st May 2022

continuing on a year-to-year basis until the Landlord or the Tenant terminates the tenancy (the "Term")

RENT

6. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the rent for the Property is £750 per month (the "Rent").
7. The Tenant will pay the Rent in advance, on or before the 1st of each and every month of the Term to the Landlord at 17 The Plantation, Worthing, BN1 3ZAA or at such other place as the Landlord may later designate by cash.
8. The Landlord may charge the Tenant an additional amount for each day that a payment of Rent is late, which will not be charged until the expiry of the applicable grace period under the Act and will not exceed the maximum permitted under the Act.
9. The Landlord may increase the Rent for the Property upon providing to the Tenant the greater of 30 days' notice and any notice required by the Act.

ACCESS

10. The Landlord and the Tenant will complete, sign and date an inspection report at the beginning and at the end of this tenancy.
11. At all reasonable times during the Term and any renewal of this Agreement, the Landlord and its agents may enter the Property to make inspections or repairs, or to show the Property to prospective tenants or purchasers in compliance with the Act.

TENANT IMPROVEMENTS

12. The Tenant will obtain written permission from the Landlord before doing any of the following.
 - a. applying adhesive materials, or inserting nails or hooks in walls or ceilings other than two small picture hooks per wall
 - b. painting, wallpapering, redecorating or in any way significantly altering the appearance of the Property.
 - c. removing or adding walls, or performing any structural alterations.
 - d. installing a waterbed(s).
 - e. changing the amount of heat or power normally used on the Property as well as installing additional electrical wiring or heating units.
 - f. placing or exposing or allowing to be placed or exposed anywhere inside or outside the Property any placard, notice or sign for advertising or any other purpose, or
 - g. affixing to or erecting upon or near the Property any radio or TV antenna or tower.

UTILITIES AND OTHER CHARGES

13. The Tenant is responsible for the payment of all utilities in relation to the Property.

INSURANCE

14. The Tenant is hereby advised and understands that the personal property of the Tenant is not insured by the Landlord for either damage or loss, and the Landlord assumes no liability for any such loss.

ABSENCES

15. The Tenant will inform the Landlord if the Tenant is to be absent from the Property for any reason for a period of more than twenty-eight (28) days. The Tenant agrees to take such measures to secure the Property prior to such absence as the Landlord may reasonably require and take appropriate measures to prevent frost or flood damage.
16. If the Tenant no longer occupies the Property as its only principal home (whether or not the Tenant intends to return) the Landlord may, at its option, end the tenancy by serving a Notice to Quit that complies with the Act.
17. If the Tenant has abandoned the Property and the Landlord is unsure whether the Tenant intends to return, the Landlord is entitled to apply for a court order for possession.
18. If the Tenant has abandoned or surrendered the Property and the Landlord feels that the Property is in an insecure or urgent condition, or that electrical or gas appliances could cause damage or danger to the Property then the Landlord may enter the Property to carry out urgent repairs. If the locks have been changed for such urgent security reasons, the Landlord must attempt to provide notice to the Tenant of the change in locks and how they can get a new key.
19. If there is implied or actual surrender of the Property by the Tenant, the Landlord may, at its option, enter the Property by any means without being liable for any prosecution for such entering, and without becoming liable to the Tenant for damages or for any payment of any kind whatever, and may, at the Landlord's discretion, as agent for the Tenant, let the Property, or any part of the Property, for the whole or any part of the then unexpired term, and may receive and collect all rent payable by virtue of such letting, and, at the Landlord's option, hold the Tenant liable for any difference between the Rent that would have been payable under this Agreement during the balance of the unexpired term, if this Agreement had continued in force, and the net rent for such period realised by the Landlord by means of the letting. Implied surrender will be deemed if the Tenant has left the keys behind or where the Tenant has ceased to occupy the Property and clearly does not intend to return.
20. If the Tenant has abandoned or surrendered the Property and the Tenant has left some belongings on the Property, the Landlord will store the Tenant's possessions with reasonable care for a reasonable period of time taking into consideration the value of the items and cost to store them. Once the cost of storage is greater than the value of the items, such items may be disposed of by the Landlord.

GOVERNING LAW

21. This Agreement will be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of England and the Parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.

SEVERABILITY

22. If there is a conflict between any provision of this Agreement and the Act, the Act will prevail and such provisions of the Agreement will be amended or deleted as necessary in order to comply with the Act. Further, any provisions that are required by the Act are incorporated into this Agreement.
23. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provisions of this Agreement will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement. Such other provisions remain in full force and effect.

CARE AND USE OF PROPERTY

27. The Tenant will promptly notify the Landlord of any damage, or of any situation that may significantly interfere with the normal use of the Property.
28. Vehicles which the Landlord reasonably considers unsightly, noisy, dangerous, improperly insured, inoperable or unlicensed are not permitted in the Tenant's parking stall(s), and such vehicles may be towed away at the Tenant's expense. Parking facilities are provided at the Tenant's own risk. The Tenant is required to park in only the space allotted to them.
29. The Tenant will not park (or allow to be parked) any caravan, boat or vehicle by the Property, if such parking, in the reasonable opinion of the Landlord, would cause nuisance or annoyance to neighbours or to anyone nearby.
30. The Tenant will keep the Property in good repair and condition and in good decorative order.
31. The Tenant or anyone living with the Tenant will not engage in any illegal trade or activity on or about the Property including, but not limited to, using the Property for drug storage, drug dealing, prostitution, illegal gambling or illegal drinking.
32. The Parties will comply with standards of health, sanitation, fire, housing and safety as required by law, including by conducting any required inspections and providing any reports or information to the other Party as required by law.

33. If the Tenant is absent from the Property and the Property is unoccupied for a period of twenty-eight (28) consecutive days or longer, the Tenant will arrange for regular inspection by a competent person. The Landlord will be notified in advance as to the name, address and phone number of this said person.
34. At the expiration of the Term, the Tenant will quit and surrender the Property in as good a state and condition as they were at the commencement of this Agreement, with reasonable wear and tear and reasonable damages by the elements excepted.

RULES AND REGULATIONS
