Dear Sir/Madam ,

Today an application was submitted via the planning portal for the change of use of a grain silo to office space, however there was a slight error on the application form. The form states under section 19- No Employment details were submitted for this application. However after talking to the client the proposal would actually offer space for approximately 5/6 people. I would appreciate it if it could be updated on your files.

Sorry for any inconvenience caused.

If you have any queries please do not hesitate to contact me,

Kind regards,

Jessica Walker
