Dear Sirs

I would like to register our objection to this planning application. Whilst the proposed new building would appear to broadly adopt the same footprint as the existing building the proposal is for a large house with an imposing frontage which (a) will swamp the plot and appear overbearing next to the adjacent properties (b) is of a size which is wholly inconsistent with an estate which is predominantly made up of bungalows and chalets (c) has been designed without any apparent attempt to be consistent with or sympathetic to others on the estate. We would respectfully suggest that this application should be rejected and that the owners should be encouraged to consider a smaller development which is more in keeping with our idyllic estate where open space is a very important part of the ambience. We echo the views expressed by other neighbours in that this is not a suitable or appropriate location for the development of large executive homes and will detract from our enjoyment of the neighbourhood and the very reasons why we chose to live here.

Yours faithfully

Mark & Tina Dignan
