The main balustrade is in place but the proposed screening is not. Yes, it is retrospective for the works implemented so far, but I would assume that they have not given a completion date as the overall works would be subject to planning approval.

I will not be the case officer, as I only cover the compliance side of things. Please allocate as normal & advise the case officer why a completion date has not been given.

Hi Lisa

This is the best email to get me on, would you be dealing with the case? Its invalid for the below reasons, as your dealing with the site would you happen to know if the balconies been started? Is it worth putting the application through and letting the planning officer chase the applicant on these when they do site visits ect as its not as if the plans are wrong or anything major at least this way it gets the ball rolling? Or shall I continue to chase? Please advise which is the best way to proceed.

1. Answered work started but provided a future date. Also if retrospective provide completion date or confirm if work is still in progress.

Thanks

The above application has been submitted as a result of a compliance case I am dealing with, and is currently on hold with you - information is required by the 2/7/20. Should the information not be submitted by this date, please send a reminder & update me accordingly.

I wasn't sure which email address you are currently using so I have sent to both, please confirm.

Many thanks
Lisa
