Dear Mark Jones

Thank you for your email details of the product we propose to use are on the following website

[REDACTED] on the site go to artificial deluxe boxwood hedge in timber trough.

This gives a description & details of the proposed hedge. We would be having a bespoke hedge made to suit the height requirement. We have discussed the stability aspect with the manufacturer and the design would be to suit the location. Also support is provided by the existing 1.1M glass balustrade.

Please feel free to call us if you need any more information.

Regards

John & Pat Dryer
