Hi Chris,

I've had an objection from a resident who states that that the adjacent house to the south, 'Shergar' has not been drawn properly in respect of garage and lounge extensions. I've looked at your plans versus my photos and it seems that the side and rear are correct but possibly there is a front extension which isn't shown. Anyway, can you check and comment please. We have had complaints before where we have decided applications based on incorrect plans of neighbouring properties.

Kind Regards
