Hi,

In response to your questions, the posts supplied will be 1.6m which allows for 0.6m in the ground. This makes the mid-point of the panel around 1m from the ground. This is the standard height and easy to read from a wheelchair. The panel on the wall of The Thatched House pub will be situated so it can be read from a wheelchair, approximately 1m above the ground. None of the signs will be illuminated.

Kind regards,

Steve
