1 Rudwicks Close, Felpham
Proposed new conservatory at rear of property

Dear Mrs Coney

Further to our emailed correspondence dated 8th January 2013 concerning the above project, please find enclosed the householder planning application for a new conservatory.

Whilst the conservatory size appears to fall within the criteria for permitted development, we understand from the Client that at the time of the new houses being developed the permitted development rights were removed. We understand, therefore, that the Client does not submit a fee for this particular planning application provided the new conservatory does fall within the permitted development criteria.

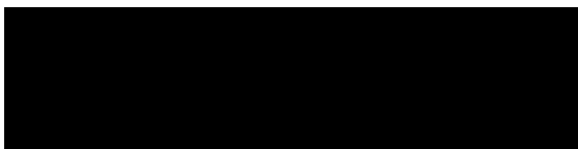

Please do not hesitate to contact us should this not be the case, thank you.

Yours sincerely

Ella Pope
