James

Simon Davis has been pushing me for a response and I intend to get my report across to him in the next few days.

I am sure he will make that available for you to see at the earliest opportunity.

Kind regards,

Mark

Good evening Mark,

Following our response to the concerns you had found with the development I was looking to see if you have had a chance to look at the revised scheme we sent over last month. As per my voicemail earlier we are keen to get everything in place for the December committee meeting and if there were any further amendments required this may start to become a push.

If you have any questions or queries please give me a call at any stage.

Kind regards,

James
