Rear of 9 Downview Road Felpham for dwelling

We have been told to make our comments in writing re the building of a house at the rear of the garden

These are all detached houses on this road, the dwelling was supposed to be a bungalow and now is apparently a 2 storey building, we don't need another housing estate starting in the gardens, there is plenty of building going on in Felpham already around the Golf Course area

Although it will not directly affect me I see no reason to need to do any more building work in the area other than the housing that is already going on

Surely housing needs to stop somewhere, the people that it does directly affect are not happy at all , where will it end, there will be no gardens left soon, if you buy a house worth this much money then you should buy it for the right reasons not to build on
