Dear Mr Sutcliff,

Thank you for your email and for the amended drawings.

Unfortunately there was an oversight on the previous application and you were not asked for the amendments. I have discussed this previous misunderstanding along with your email with my Team Leader this morning and unfortunately we are unable to backdate the application, therefore you application has been made valid from 5th November 2012. Your application has now been passed onto the Case office and your acknowledgement letter is in the post.

Kind Regards

Charlotte Burrows

Charlotte,
amended plans as requested.
I am really concerned that plans (both site/location & floor) that were deemed acceptable on the previous withdrawn application (FP/168/12) are now deemed not acceptable! This has put back the progress of this application by some 11 days, meaning extended delays in commencing building work on what is currently a sub-standard house. In this instance I should be grateful if you would make the application as valid from date of receipt on 25th October 2012.

Yours

Andy Sutcliff
