Dear Sir/Madam,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town & Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

Application No: FP/224/20/HH
Site Address: 57 Minton Road Felpham PO22 7JX
Description of works: Two storey side and rear extensions to existing dwelling & replacement of existing front loggia.

Thank you for your internet representation made on 24th December 2020 which has been recorded as an objection with the comments as follows:

OWPC32425

I would like to object to the proposed planning application as it is unreasonable and the impact is too great.

The extension is unneighbourly and overbearing, built right on the boundary, and will severely reduce the light to the adjacent property on the East side and significantly reduce the enjoyment of the rear garden. For all North facing gardens on the estate, light is a key consideration, and this proposal goes too far in reducing it.

The extension seems much too large to be built on the boundary, this is unreasonable, taking into account the height and length of the proposal and proximity to neighbours. This does not strike the right balance between allowing developments, and ensuring the impacts on others are not too great.

Yours sincerely
Suzanne Twist

Your views as made above will be considered before the application is determined.

Please be aware that Planning Services operate an 'open file' policy and will publish your comments including your name and address on the website. Please make sure that you have only provided information that you are happy will be published in this way. If you have supplied information belonging to a third party, you must make sure you have their permission to do so. If you do not wish your comments to appear on the website or on the file you will need to confirm this by emailing to planning@arun.gov.uk and I will arrange for it to be destroyed although this means that the content will then be disregarded.

The majority of applications are determined under delegated powers by officers. Further information on the decision making process can be found on the website at :<https://www.arun.gov.uk/planning-decision-process>.

Some applications will be determined by the Development Control Committee, and I shall write and inform you of the date of the meeting and the procedures for public speaking if this is the case. However, if your representation has been received after the agenda for the meeting has been finalised and the notifications have been generated, you will not receive notification. In this case, you will need to track the progress of the application on the council's website <https://www.arun.gov.uk/weekly-lists>

Any comments that are received after the agenda has been finalised will be separately reported to the members of the Development Control Committee.

Regardless of how the application is determined I will notify you of the decision.

In the event of a subsequent written representations appeal, against a refusal of planning permission on a householder application any representations made on the application will be automatically forwarded to the Secretary of State. Unlike all other types of appeal, there will be no further opportunity to comment at the appeal stage.

Yours sincerely

Neil Crowther
Group Head of Planning
