Good Morning Robert,

Further to my past two emails please can you confirm the extension of time for decision up until the 7th June with the item heading to committee for the 5th June.

I attached the list of conditions as we are recommending the application for approval. The report itself is not a public document until the agenda is released and uploaded to our web site approx. 5 working days before the meeting.

A response by Thursday 16th May would be acceptable.

Mr Tutton,

Following my previous email the Department Head has now accepted the detail of my report with a recommendation for approval. In order to progress this he has requested from you and you client an extension of time for the decision up until 7th June 2019 to allow the team to present this item at Committee 5th June 2019.

We are unable to release the report but can allow you copy of the conditions.

I look forward to your confirmation of the EOT.
