Dear Daniel,

This email is for your information. My previous email to you appears to have bounced back.

Kind Regards,

Matthew

Dear Mrs Bowley,

To be honest I am completely shocked by your response. This does not seem to be fair or reasonable.

I cannot believe that I was not made aware, by one of your officers, that it would not be possible for me to provide a written response to the committee after the application was deferred last time round.

Presumably I can speak with an officer so that he/she can explain to the committee the reasons for my clients response to the deferment?

Kind Regards,

Matthew

Dear Mr Pickup

Thank you for your email.

Unfortunately, we do not accept written submissions/public speaking on deferred items. I am therefore unable to register your details.

Kind Regards

Dear Mrs Bowley,

You may remember me from the last month?

I am the agent for the planning application FP/258/19/PL which was presented as item 12 to the Planning Committee meeting of on Wednesday 24th June. You may recall that I was late in applying to make a virtual presentation that would be read out to the committee by one of your officers.

I understand that the application is to be represented to committee on Wednesday 29th July, after a decision was deferred last time round. Please would it be possible to put my name on the list as wanting to have my deputation read out to committee? I would normally have waited to receive a letter from you asking me if I wanted to make representations but haven't so far received one.

I am on holiday from this evening onwards until 28th July and, although I will check email occasionally, don't want to miss out again!

I hope you can help me.

Kind Regards,

Matthew

Dear Mr Pickup

Thank you for your email.

Unfortunately, further to our telephone conversation and for the reasons discussed, I am not able to submit this deputation to be read out at Development Control Committee on 24 June 2020.

I can confirm that there are no statements being read out at DCC on application FP/258/19/PL and will ensure that your comments with regards to the clarity of the invitations offering the opportunity to send in representations at DCC going forward are fed through to the appropriate officers

Dear Planning,

Please could I ask that the attached deputation is read out in support of application FP/258/19/PL on Wednesday 24th June?

Please could you advise me how to watch this online?

Many thanks for your help.
