

220104 – 49 Minton Road, Felpham, West Sussex
Ecosystem Services Actions	Policy SD2 criterion
Rainwater from the new canopy will be connected to the existing rain water network which discharges to the existing soakaways.	A, C and D
Rainwater from the new canopy will be connected to the existing rain water network which discharges to the existing soakaways.	a) Sustainably manage land and water environments;
The existing conservatory is to be demolished and a new glazed canopy installed.	b) Protect and provide more, better and joined up natural habitats;
The existing dwelling and proposed works will have no impact on water quality.	c) Conserve water resources and improve water quality;
The existing dwelling is to remain unaffected with the new canopy being constructed over part of the area currently covered by the conservatory to be demolished.	d) Manage and mitigate the risk of flooding;
The existing dwelling is to remain unaffected with the new canopy being constructed over part of the area currently covered by the conservatory to be demolished so will have no impact on climate change	e) Improve the National Park's resilience to, and mitigation of, climate change;
The existing dwelling is to remain unaffected with the new canopy being constructed over part of the area currently covered by the conservatory to be demolished so will have no impact on loss of planting areas	f) Increase the ability to store carbon through new planting or other means;
The existing dwelling is to remain unaffected with the new canopy being constructed over part of the area currently covered by the conservatory to be demolished so will have no impact on soil enhancement	g) Conserve and enhance soils;
The application is for a domestic works only, so this does not apply	h) Support the sustainable production and use of food, forestry and raw materials;
The application is for a domestic works only, so this does not apply	i) Reduce levels of pollution;
The application is for a domestic works only, so this does not apply	j) Improve opportunities for peoples' health and wellbeing;
The application is for a domestic works only, so this does not apply	k) Provide opportunities for access to the natural and cultural resources which contribute to the special qualities.