Subject: Re: Details of Planning decision on Application Ref: FP/274/18/PL at 10 Felpham Gardens

Thank you for forwarding to me, your decision (finally!!!) on two simple house to be built in Felpham Gardens.

I am staggered at the time it has taken and the conditions associated with the approval, plus the somewhat petty comments which have obviously been taken into account.

I thought the two original chalet bungalows were superb and made a rather tatty road look somewhat improved.

I am really disappointed by the Council's decision to make the changes to one chalet and one single storey bungalow, particularly as I was very interested in buying the No 2 building in order to live near to my disabled brother. Now that it has changed, that option is no longer viable.

No 1 building overlooks the ugly changing room block and how that ever got passed by Planning, god only knows!!!

If it takes your Council that long to pass planning for two really nice chalets bungalows which would have added class to the area, how on earth has it passed plans for a number of other ugly properties, particularly on the new A259 by pass road???

I have wasted the past 1.5 yeas of hoping to move to Felpham

Regards
