Dear Sirs

I am writing to say that I am dismayed by the proposed housing on the current Bognor Golf Club.

I live in Felpham village and although I am retired and avoid using my car at peak times, I am aware of the amount of traffic on the A259 around the traffic lights especially. It has increased so much since 1970 when I first came to live here and this new housing would put an almost intolerable burden not only on the roads but schools, health care etc.

Please think again.

Yours faithfully
Judith Lee
