Dear Sir/madam

I am writing to show my opposition for the felpham golf club to be sold and re developed.

My husband & I live in a bungalow at 16 golf links Road, our back garden looks down the first Tee. It is an amazing outlook and is the very thing , along with the wildlife, that made us want to live here .

Our other concerns at the land being redeveloped is -

1. Extra traffic, there is already an issue with the local school with parking which over flows into our road at school pick up times. Surely this will be made worse if 600 new homes were built.
2. As my husband is a very ill man, it is upmost importance to see a doctor frequently, I wonder if this would be so easy if our surgery was under extra pressure due to the extra homes and hence families moving into the area.

All in all I am strongly opposed to these plans and hope very much for a desirable conclusion!

Kind regards Mrs Jean Beasley
