Nicola,

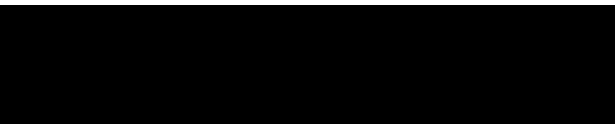

Please see attached block plan and elevations attached to the floor plan. Hopefully, everything is now in order to validate the application.

Kind Regards,

Hi Michael

Thank you for the amended floor plans.

Although there are no external changes/alterations, an elevation plan is required, this can be one plan clearly labelled existing and proposed.

Secondly, in my original email I did not ask for a Block Plan at 1:500 or 1:200, which is also required.

Kind Regards

Nicky

Nicola,

I received an invalid letter from you this morning relating to application FP/58/20/CLP (82 Flansham Lane).

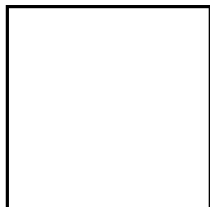

Having spoken with the architect, the floor plans were not correct. There is a roller shutter on the side elevation, and this is to remain, with the new door being located behind the shutter. Hopefully the amended attached floor plans will explain this (please supersede the original floorplan with the attached drawing), along with the attached photograph to show the existing side elevation.

I'm hoping the amended floor plans demonstrate there will be no external alterations, and therefore there shouldn't be a need for elevation drawings. I'd be grateful if you can review, and let me know if you are now happy to validate the application.

Kind Regards,

Michael Bingham
