Dear Daniel,

Thank you for providing the amended plan.

As you are proposed to amend an existing building, could you please submit the existing floor plans and elevations measuring to a stated scale of 1:50 or 1:100.

Kind Regards

You don't often get email from danviccooper@gmail.com. Learn why this is important

Hi Iqraa,

Please accept the attached block plan with admends.

The building, is the same building as before. (not a different building)

The measurements have already been provided following the submission in December 2021

New drawings recently submitted show this, only change is the size is 1 foot smaller and will be within our boundary

The only real change I and proposing is The building materials are going to be changed that face the front of the road.

Shown though the new measurements.

I hope this is enough to proceed with the next steps.

Kind regards

Daniel
