Dear Mr May,

I refer to the above application.

I note that the elevation design of the building you have submitted annotated with materials is different from that approved under K/40/18/PL. I cannot therefore consider the application in its current form. You will either need to withdraw the application and pursue the amended design by way of submission of an application to vary the plans condition and then submit details of materials in a new DOC application or submit the material details requested for approval on the approved elevation drawings or within a schedule which can be substituted for the details submitted.

Please advise how you wish to proceed within the next 7 days.

Regards

Anita Gardner
