Dear Mr Andrew,

I appreciate that in order to formally discharge the condition virtually the same information will need to be submitted. However once a decision is issued the DOC application cannot be re-considered and there is no mechanism by which the original DOC can be reinstated once determined. I can't deal with Discharge of Condition requests without the submission of the necessary application.

The proposal is acceptable only on the basis of the additional information we have subsequently discussed. I would suggest that in order to progress the matter further you resubmit the application with the additional clarification.

Regards

Anita Gardner

Mrs Gardner, thank you for your email of 31 July whereby the Conservation Officer is satisfied with the details submitted.

As referred to in my letter dated 14 June, the information in respect of the feather edged boarding and the external softwood pedestrian door was included within the information previously submitted and which was fully considered at the time, both by your Council as planning officers and equally the statutory consultees and members of the public who had the opportunity to comment on the same.

I would therefore consider that the information concerning this has already been considered within the public arena and could have been included within the approval K/20/18/HH and K/21/18/L, such that there is not the need to re-submit this information, as this formed information previously submitted to & considered by your Council.

In respect of the doors, I would also refer you to my email of 14 June, in light of this I would hope that you could please issue a brief letter dealing with these three areas confirming that you consider this information discharges the Conditions and that a further application submitting information, which has previously been submitted to your Council, is unnecessary.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Thank you

Dear Sheila,

I apologise for the delay in reply I have spoken with the Conservation Officer following further research and review of the submitted information he is now satisfied that the submitted details would be acceptable. Accordingly, without prejudice, I suggest that you resubmit them for consideration as a new DOG.

Regards

Anita

Dear Anita

Apologies for chasing as I am sure you would have been in contact had the Conservation Officer provided a response, but as Richard returns from holiday tomorrow, just to confirm this is still the position in order that I can update him.
