Dear Sir/Madam,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town & Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

Application No: K/2/26/HH
Site Address: Horizons 71 Coastal Road Kingston BN16 1SW
Description of works: Proposed erection of split chestnut post and rail fencing to the southern boundary.

Thank you for your internet representation made on 6th March 2026 which has been recorded as an objection with the comments as follows:

OWPC81830

I have always admired the generosity of spirit of residents of Coastal Road. Their custodianship of the greensward speaks volumes for their integrity and a desire to preserve the very environment that presumably enticed them to a unique seaside location in Kingston in the first place.

I'm genuinely disappointed that the application does not appear to recognise or register what even a minor physical "assertion" of property rights implies or infers.

The application is, in my view, misplaced and disregards the value that will be lost not only to the applicant but to the area as a whole.

All good things come to an end, and this application in my view represents the beginning of the end for the greensward.

Your views as made above will be considered before the application is determined.

Please be aware that Planning Services operate an 'open file' policy and will publish your comments including your name and address on the website. The website is updated once a day in the evening so it may take up to 24 hours for it appear on there. Please make sure that you have only provided information that you are happy will be published in this way. If you have supplied information belonging to a third party, you must make sure you have their permission to do so. If you do not wish your comments to appear on the website or on the file you will need to confirm this by emailing to planning@arun.gov.uk and I will arrange for it to be destroyed although this means that the content will then be disregarded.

The majority of applications are determined under delegated powers by officers. Further information on the decision making process can be found on the website at :<https://www.arun.gov.uk/what-happens-next>.

Some applications will be determined by the Planning Committee, and I shall write and inform you of the date of the meeting and the procedures for public speaking if this is the case. However, if your representation has been received after the agenda for the meeting has been finalised and the notifications have been generated, you will not receive notification. In this case, you will need to track the progress of the application on the council's website <https://www.arun.gov.uk/planning-application-search>

Any comments that are received after the agenda has been finalised will be separately reported to the members of the Planning Committee.

Regardless of how the application is determined I will notify you of the decision.

In the event of a subsequent written representations appeal, against a refusal of planning permission on a householder application any representations made on the application will be automatically forwarded to the Secretary of State. Unlike all other types of appeal, there will be no further opportunity to comment at the appeal stage.

Yours sincerely

Neil Crowther
Group Head of Planning
