Dear Sir/Madam,

Town & Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)
Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (England) Order 2015

Application No: K/55/20/PL
Site Address: 57 Coastal Road Kingston BN16 1SN
Description of works: Demolition & erection of 1 No. dwelling. This application is in CIL Zone 4 and is CIL Liable as new dwelling.

Thank you for your internet representation made on 17th January 2021 which has been recorded as an objection with the comments as follows:

OWPC32976

I am commenting on behalf of the East Preston and Kingston Preservation Society.

The design of the proposed house could not be further from the objectives of the Local Plan. The images of the street scene show how alien the aggressive facade and severely rectangular form of the house would appear among a row of houses with pitched roofs and more conventional facades. The proposal is very far from reflecting or improving upon the character of the area. Coastal Road does contain a variety of styles, but those near no.55 are conventional in design, and none of the houses further afield are so severely rectangular in form, have so aggressive a street facade, or descend to the vulgarity of mirror glass on the south facade. The effect of reflections from the glass on walkers on the coastal path should be considered. They could be dazzled and alarmed.

This application diverges from the objectives of Policy D DM1 in terms of scale, massing, building materials and design features; in appearance, by demonstrating a low standard of architectural principles and by having a severe impact on users and occupiers of nearby property and land. Planning permission should therefore be refused.
