Dear Mr Senft,

There isn't a meeting held, unless the application is 'called in' by a councillor. Therefore, the application is decided under 'delegated powers', this means that I make a recommendation to my Team Leader, who then either agrees, or disagrees with my recommendation.

Hope this helps,

Zac Denton

Dear Mr Denton,

I would like to be present on this meeting.

Could you please give me the date and time and also exactly where this meeting is?

I look forward to your reply and thank you very much for giving me this information.

Best regards,

Robert Senft

Dear Mr Senft,

The decision date for the application is the 7th of June, I would be intending to issue a decision around this date.

Kind regards,

Z Denton

Dear Mr Denton,

Being the case officer of my planning application: LU/102/19/HH

Could you please tell me when the council will have a meeting regarding this?
And also, can you foresee any problems with this application?

It seems to me straight forward and should be passed because the wall is in keeping with other walls in the same road and certainly lower than most.

Please let me know the date a decision will be made and your opinion of the application.

I look forward to your reply.

Best regards,

Robert Senft
