10/03/2020

Details of the pre-application advice received

The Conservation Officer, Mr White walked around the building and discussed the options for replacement of the damaged materials. Like for like replacements or the use of comparable modern materials were discussed and agreed. The removal of a large amounts of damaged fabric, further inspection of structure beneath the finishes, and retention of as much floor boarding and hidden structures as possible was agreed. The proposals reflect these discussions.
