Dear Sir

Thank you for your email. I have emailed Mr Wood with my dissatisfaction that you have granted the planning application.

Non of my objections were looked into. How on earth can you tell me that the rear first floor window does not over look my garden. That the area behind my garage will not be effected by the wall of this huge extension.

No one from the Council ever came round and visited me to inspect.

As for the parking. At the weekend there is very little if any on street parking.

The residence at number 68 already park over my drive. They never use their off street parking.

I will be looking into making an appeal of your poor decision.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Jane Hunt
