Hello Peter

Thank you for your call and email this morning.

My clients are happy to confirm an extension of time to the end of October.

I have been in touch with Peacock & Smith, they are currently reviewing a draft agreement prepared by Morrison's lawyers, and will be in touch with you shortly.

Kind regards

Dear Jeremy

Thank you for the update this morning, as discussed please could I request your formal agreement for an extension of time to the application.

Could you please confirm whether an extension of time could be agreed on the application until 31st October to allow for the completion of the Unilateral Undertaking, in accordance with Article 29, 2c of the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) Order 2010. I would hope this will give sufficient time to complete the agreement, however we can review this timescale at the end of October if the agreement is not completed by then.

In terms of the highway conditions, I will discuss this with Dominic Smith at WSCC and get back to you as soon as possible with the wording.

Kind regards,
Peter
