Hello Michael

Following the submission of amended drawings for Littlehampton we have had amended CGIs produced - see attached. These aren't intended to form part of the approved drawings but hopefully will give you a good idea of what the development will look like.

I am now going on two weeks leave and won't be back in the office until October 17th, so if you have any queries regarding the amended drawings or have comments that need to be considered could you please forward them over to my colleague Amanda Tinwell (copied into this email) who will hopefully be able to action any drawing amends in my absence (though I hope there won't be any!).

Kind Regards
Laura
