CONCLUSIONS

Principle

The proposed development is situated within the built up area boundary. Where the principle of development is acceptable subject to accordance with relevant development plan policies. As stated in SDSP2 the key policies considered are D DM1 and D DM4. The site is occupied by a detached property with front and back gardens in a mixed design area.

Policy

Policy D DM1 sets out 13 design aspects pf which applications should be assessed against. These include: Character, Appearance, Impact, Innovation, Adaptability, Crime Prevention, Trees, Public realm, Layout, Public art, Density and Scale.

Policy D DM4 sets out criteria for which applications relating to extensions and alterations of existing buildings must be assessed against. They generally seek to minimise the impact of the proposal on the character of the host dwelling, its neighbours and locality.

Policy DSP1 of the Arun Local Plan sets out that all development proposals should seek to make efficient use of land but reflect the characteristics of the site and local area in their layout, landscaping, density, mix, scale, massing, character, materials, finish and architectural details.

Site history

Relevant site history noted.

Design and Visual Amenity

The applicant seeks planning permission for the construction of a rear extension to the established dwelling. The proposed rear extension will measure approximately 7.9m wide, 3.2m in length and be built to the proposed height at top of pitch of 3.3m and eaves measuring 2.3m.

The proposed extension given its location will not be visible from the street scene, it will therefore not have a detrimental impact on the character of the host dwelling or the street scene.

The proposed extension is considered to appear subservient to the host dwelling and would not result in any adverse impact on the spatial pattern or character of the area and would therefore accord with the policies D DM1 and D DM4 of the Arun Local Plan.

Neighbouring Residential Amenity

The proposed rear extension will be located 9.2m from the north western boundary. On the northern elevation there are 4 No. proposed 'velux' windows positioned on the lean-to. There are 1 No. proposed French doors and 1 No. bi-fold doors

Given the design and location of the extension it is not considered to give rise to adverse impacts in terms of overlooking, overshadowing and overbearing and is therefore deemed to accord with D DM1 and D DM4 of the Arun Local Plan.

The 45 degree rule may cause conflict with this application but it would be modest and due to the design of the extension and its modest width and height it would not cause demonstrable harm to the amenities of the neighbour.

HUMAN RIGHTS ACT

The Council in making a decision should be aware of and take into account any implications that may arise from the Human Rights Act 1998. Under the Act, it is unlawful for a public authority such as Arun

District Council to act in a manner, which is incompatible with the European Convention on Human Rights.

It is not considered that the recommendation for approval of the grant of permission in this case interferes unreasonably with any local residents' right to respect for their private and family life and home, except insofar as it is necessary to protect the rights and freedoms of others (in this case, the rights of the applicant). The Council is also permitted to control the use of property in accordance with the general interest and the recommendation for approval is considered to be a proportionate response to the submitted application based on the considerations set out in this report.
