Hi Tony

I've been trying to amend the plans and there paper size for you as currently there all cut off and the paper sizes are all very off as well, as the plans are also photos of the plans rather than the plans themselves it is also affecting the scaling. It might be best if you send the plans directly to our office in the post and I will scan them in for you and sort out the scaling that way. I can then re-post the plans back to you so you will have the original copy.

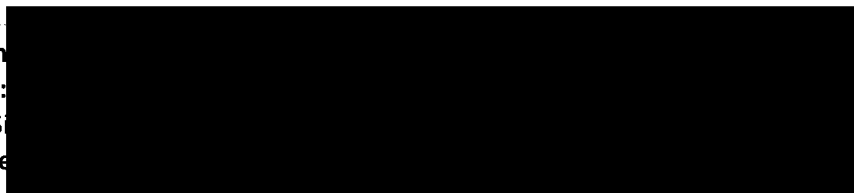

Kind regards
Sian
