Hi, Finlay,

As requested I hope these pictures will help you, I have spoken with my local contractor and they will be using , Marley Cedral cladding boards, Colour wise we are going for a dark grey / violet blue colour if this is vital to the planning consent that we give you specific colour then I can confirm next week as my wife and I will be choosing at the weekend, to match up with our new front door. We didn't want to get ahead of ourselves and choose if we couldn't get the planning ok.

These pictures are stock pictures to give you the style, our boards will be hung horizontally.
