Dear Sirs, attached are revised drawings EX-01A and P-02A which are both updated to now show an existing window in a ground floor store that was missing on the previous plans. Please may you substitute these drawings for the ones initially submitted?

We write to also confirm that the en-suite bathroom for Bedroom 9 is located on the opposite side of the corridor for Rooms 7, 9 and 9 and is for the sole use of Room 9.

Regards

Mr Jo Funnell – Director
