Nicola,

The elevations on my drawing are correct as they match the existing windows

The New Heritage drawing is a typical "system" drawing provided by the manufacturer and is intended to show the general detail of the window construction only and is not specifically related to a particular project hence the title block does not include a project reference but does say that it is indicative. Regrettably, I will not be able to amend the drawing

Good Morning

Thank you for the amended drawings and completed forms as requested.

I have checked the amended drawing, and the proposed windows do not accord to the New Heritage V/S Window System drawing provided, as this drawing shows the window with 4 panes and the proposed is showing 12.

Please could you clarify which is correct, and amend accordingly.

Kind Regards

Nicky Moore
