Dear Hefford,

The above application has been passed through to me today. I note that the proposed side elevation and west elevation plans do not indicate the hand rail to the decking in the same position in relation to the existing hedging. The side elevation shows the handrail in line with the hedging and the proposed west elevation extends beyond the edge of the hedging.

Without prejudice, I would appreciate confirmation as to which detail is correct and an amended plan so that both plans accord.

Regards

Anita Gardner
