Good afternoon Zac

The frames will be the same colour as the existing and the roof windows are likely to be velux. There are to be two sets of folding doors at the rear. There are to be standard size windows on the side elevations and a pedestrian door on the South. The existing rear and side windows are clear glazed therefore we have gone with clear glazed new windows.

Just let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Many thanks

June

Dear Mrs Grinstead,

Please can you provide details of any windows/openings you are proposing on the extension?

Kind regards,
