I did resend my email following your call.
However, in case you have still not received my reply, may I confirm that my note stating that all dimensions must be checked on site does not apply for planning purposes.
I trust this is in order.

Regards,
tim cording

Dear Mr Cording,
I have noticed that the main submitted plan for the above application, entitled 'Alterations and Extensions' contains the note 'all dimensions must be checked on site and not scaled from this drawing' this is not acceptable for planning applications and I would therefore appreciate confirmation that the words except for planning purposes can be added to this note.
