re Jamie Hawkins hopes to demolish the Sea Road shelter and build a kite surfing school and café, complete with roof terrace to take advantage of the coastal views

My husband and I think it's a brilliant idea, it's wonderful to see people of all ages enjoying the sea and all it has to offer and after all the current shelter is very unpleasant.

A water sports centred cafe would complement the area and encourage many more people. young and old to visit Littlehampton. We also think the locals would appreciate it for themselves, their children and grandchildren. This is the sort of think we need. It would also encourage people to realise and use the full stretch of our beautiful beach.
