The tree is dropping berries and leaves and causing the residents at number 21 distress. The tree has low amenity value and removing it will improve the aesthetics of the area to neighbouring residents. Removing the tree will reduce any distress to the owner of the tree and neighbours caused by the detritus.